T-TIME WITH THE PRESIDENT

Happy 100th Birthday, Model T!

Russ & Kathy Furstnow and Gary & Marti Hays positioned their motorhomes in Richmond, IN, last week in anticipation of the Centennial T Party. Dave & Jean Chance's trailer is being driven there by their son this week so that all three Model T's can drive the route together beginning on July 5.

John & Montana Renkema are working hard to complete work on their Model T so it can be trailered to the event. Art & Tommie Wimmer have their Model T ready for the tour, and Dick & Joyce Erfert as well as Harold & Karen Crutcher will also attend the celebration. Russ will be presenting a seminar on "Speedometers and the Model T" at the Centennial on Friday at 11:00 a.m.

We'll keep you posted on the club website.

T-TIME WITH MARILYN

Our CCMTC website will be updated daily (assuming internet access will be available) beginning on Saturday, July 5, to share our travel experiences with you. After July 5 this link will be located at the top right of the homepage where the Model T with the balloons is currently displayed. Our website address is:

Betsey Bruner, Community Editor of Flagstaff's Arizona Daily Sun newspaper, wrote a very nice article entitled "Oldies but Goodies" about our activities. This picture and interview appeared on the front page of the Wednesday, June 25 edition. Please click the link below and enjoy it with us. Do you think "Oldies but Goodies" refers to the T's or to Gary and Russ???
